Tom likes art and music. Last January he went to Paris for a holiday. He went to the Eiffel Tower and visited museums. One day while he was drinking coffee at a coffee shop he met a beautiful lady. Her name was Lauren. They enjoyed talking about art and listening to music. Lauren showed Tom many museums. In February they started dating.

On March 21 they went to a nice restaurant. It was Lauren's birthday. Tom gave Lauren some roses, and the waiters sang "Happy Birthday". When they finished dinner Tom asked, "Lauren, will you marry me?" She said, "Yes!"
